GIANTS WIN AFTER LOSING

NO "DOG" FUNDS FOR EQUITABLE; MORTON TO SUE

He Issues a Formal Statement Repudiating Mysterious Loans Carried by the Society in the Names of President Alexander and Comptroller Jordan.

President Paul Morton, of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, this afternoon issued a statement in which he declared he intended to sue the Mercantile Trust Company for the recovery of $265,000 paid on account of what is supposed to have been a "yellow dog" fund loan.

The suit will involve the mysterious loan of $685,000, which was carried by the Mercantile in the names of the Equitable's former president, James W. Alexander, and former comptroller, Thomas D. Jordan. A few days after the Mercantile had presented this loan to Mr. Morton and been informed by him that he would not pay it the transaction was mysteriously closed.

In going over the accounts of the society since then Morton has discovered that between 1901 and 1904 $28,000 was paid on account of this Alexander-Jordan account out of the funds of the Equitable and without authority. The suit is to recover this amount.

Mysterious Loan Fluctuated. Besides being unable to discover any authority in the books of the society for the payment of the $28,000 Mr. Morton has established in vain for any authority in the beginning to contract the debt, which seems to have fluctuated from time to time between $50,000 and $1,000,000.

Mr. Morton describes the matter thus: "When I found upon examination that no such loan had been authorized by the directors or by the Executive Committee, or in any way appeared on the books of the Society I, accordingly, notified the Mercantile Trust Company that the society would not recognize the loan. A few days later I was informed that the loan had been paid by persons whose identity was not disclosed to me. The examination of the expert accountant has revealed three payments to the society to the Mercantile Trust Company on account of this loan, one of $100,000 made on Dec. 20, 1901, one of $68,000 made on Oct. 4, 1902, and another of $100,000 made on Feb. 4, 1904. So far as I can ascertain these payments were unauthorized. I have accordingly instructed counsel to take the necessary proceedings to recover these amounts for the society."

Loan to John E. Seear. In addition to the above loans, brought to your attention at the last meeting of the board, I find that in 1907 the Society made a loan to John E. Seear which at June 2, 1909, amounted to $340,000. The total loan has been reduced to $36,825. The collateral held is without value, and Mr. Seear has been through bankruptcy, which makes it necessary to charge off the amount. I do not see why this has not been done before, unless it is with the idea that ultimately Mr. Seear will be in position to make the amount good.

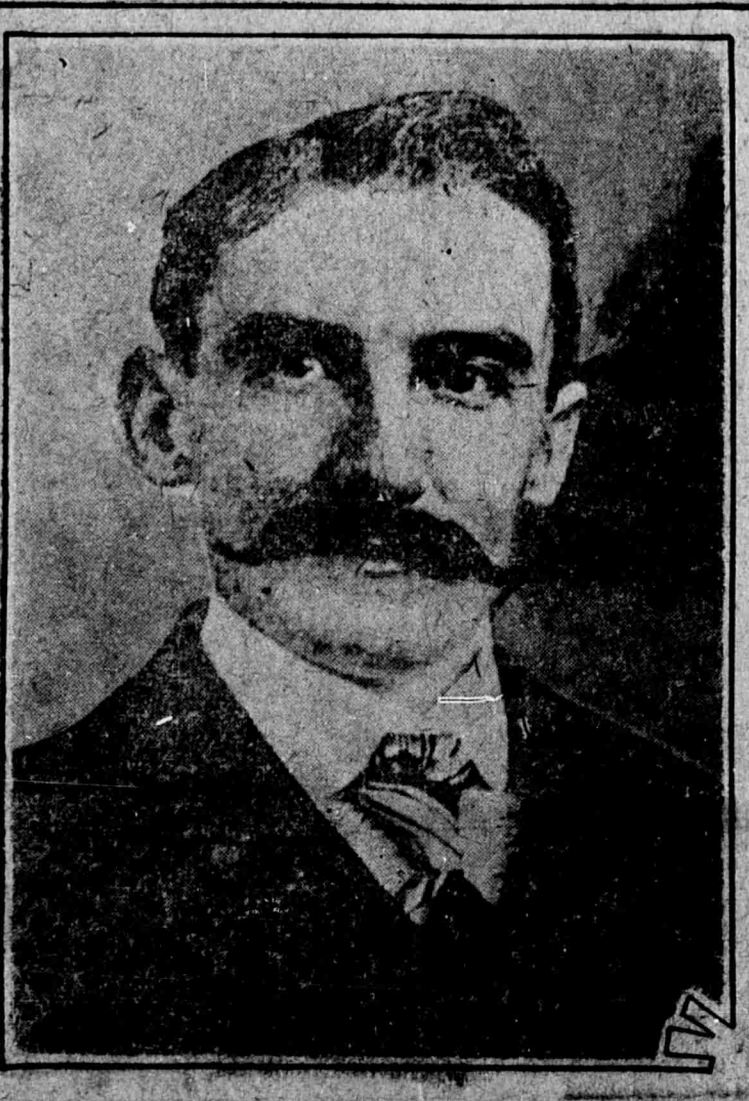

Can any other transactions of the society be developed? Will the attention be directed to the fact that the loan to John E. Seear was made by a payment of $100,000 to the Mercantile Trust Company, which was then paid to John E. Seear by a check drawn on the Mercantile Trust Company.

When we reached the house of James and Van Alstine, we were suddenly struck a terrific blow on the back of the head. He made an effort to look and make an assertion, but a second blow laid him low.

When we were with some one else, we were suddenly struck a terrific blow on the back of the head. He made an effort to look and make an assertion, but a second blow laid him low.

Philadelphians Turn Tables on Griffith's Team, and White-wash is Evenly Distributed in Lively Double-Header Game.

BY ALLEN SANGREE. (Special to The Evening World.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Ambrose Patemann, the giant left hander, whom Griffith let go to Providence and then recalled, was a star of the first magnitude this afternoon. In the opening game with the Athletics, out of three times to bat he singled twice, and then, in the eighth inning, with the score nothing to nothing, smashed a double that broke up the game.

He was followed by Hahn and Keeler with bunts and Rutherford and Yeager with clean ones outside of the diamond. This tallied a score of four runs. Dave Fultz also singled, tallying Yeager. Keeler came in on Yeager's rap and crashed into the mammoth Shreck, throwing him on his head and so, that Ellersfeld got over before the famous backstop could recover. In addition to his 100 percent at bat, Patemann's long red arms worked like mad, dened flails. He had tremendous speed and is a carter. Not an Athletics reached third base and the game closed with New York victor at 5 to 0.

About 4,000 fans were present when the second game began. Harrel shot things with a walk, and took second on Lord's sacrifice. Goode was key wild and let Davis walk. Chase added a run to second, pairing Davis. Harrel reaching third, trying to score on a passed ball, Harrel was out at the plate. Klingor covering the ball and shooting it to Goode. NO RUNS.

Hahn fired to Lord. Harrel then tried under a drive from Keeler. Harrel shot a liner in M. Cross's mitt. NO RUNS.

Second Inning. Harrel fired to Lord. Harrel then tried under a drive from Keeler. Harrel shot a liner in M. Cross's mitt. NO RUNS.

Third Inning. Harrel fired to Lord. Harrel then tried under a drive from Keeler. Harrel shot a liner in M. Cross's mitt. NO RUNS.
